Nanny needed September 2010 (Victoria (Cook/Maplewood))

Hi! Our super beloved nanny is leaving the Island this fall, and so. . .

We are looking for a part time nanny for our daughter (born June 08) starting in September 2010.

This may be a position ideally suited to a student as the hours will vary - for Sept/Oct we will need 2.5-3.5 days per week; my work is variable so we can discuss a schedule that might work for both parties. By mid-November I plan to be off to enjoy the last 1.5 months with my girl before we welcome our second child in January 2011, so those two months are absolutely variable depending on your holiday or exam schedule and my fatigue level and need for a little peace (grin). At that time we can discuss if you would like to continue with her a couple of days per week in the new year.

Applicants require a car. . .current first aid and CPR. . .and please let us know what your salary requirements might be. We also don't mind sharing childcare with up to one other child if the kids are right together and around the same age.

Music Groups for ages 3, 4, and 5 (piano teaching also avail.) (Brentwood Bay)

Most successful program for small classes of children ages 3, 4 and 5, leading to learning all facets of rhythm, understanding of how instruments work, preparation to go into private music lessons when ability shown in class. Based on ORFF method, course is written, successful and has been used with all projects (art projects, parties, presentations) already prepared, as well as being extremely successful and absorbing for children, it is the #1 class for "learning about music" involving actual piano playing, prepared tape for copying to prepare for weekly songs, all ORFF instruments for careful use available. Has been taught successfully in school for over 15 years. Teacher must have had experience in music, preferably in piano as some private piano teaching is also available which could fill in time between classes. Must have experience with young children, understanding basic principles of learning abilities of age groups and be gentle, able to guide small groups of not more than 4-6 at a time. Only program that has concentrated shorter lessons with every moment of class completely arranged, school has extra piano teaching available for those who have degree or piano teaching experience. Could do all classes and private teaching in 2 days per wk., or expand to more, depending on time available. All piano teachers are currently full at school, new students plus existing students of previous teacher who has had to leave to continue with Master's degree. Most private students are young beginners, all of class students usually prefer to start with teacher that taught them in the ORFF program, so advantage to those who wish to build a large amount of private teaching. Majority of teachers at school are full-time, most have been with school for years due to great work atmosphere, full schedules, and fairest pay in town. Preference will be given to teachers who are looking for long-term job in school that teaches children "music for life", without pushing, rather focus on interests of child and building on good basis of reading and theory while playing "fun" music as rewards, with lots of opportunities for performances and "fun with music", rather than arguing over practice times - we reward all practice with stickers, lots of praise and age-appropriate songs that are recognized and fun to learn. If this sounds like a job that you would fit your skills, and you have the willingness to make yourself known as "the new ORFF teacher" by visiting the pre-schools, putting up posters at various places on the Peninsula where these ages gather, there are a large number continuing from previous years that are waiting for calls to set up classes for fall. Kindergarten is running all day, so classes will be held on Sat., mornings as well as the rest can be fit in in an early afternoon, and if private teaching becomes a part of job, it could begin getting in touch with students waiting for times now, planning to start right after school starts. Two terms for ORFF classes, Sept. to June for private lessons, based on 40 lesson year. An easy, unique and successful course that is open for using your own ideas, or using as already developed. All interested teachers please get in touch, we are growing so quickly that we have 3 subjects needing further teachers to allow for new students in school that teaches all instruments and voice with over 1100 students. Please call Carrie, principal teacher at 250-655-3175 for further information. .

Childcare/Respite/ On-Call EA Available (Vic City)

I am a 27 year old female looking for some childcare work (before/after school care, day care, babysitting, support worker, etc) for mid-August thru the end of the year. I am available starting August 16, and am hoping to find something (or two part time positions to piece together) from then onwards. I am willing to pick your child up from school and take them home in the afternoon, or I'm also game for something like 9-3 or 9-2 kinda thing if your child is younger. Part-time or full-time. M-F as well as available on Saturdays. No vehicle and I live in the Fernwood area, I'd likely come to you, so would prefer care be in the fernwood/quadra/tillicum/oak bay/vic west/oaklands areas. $15/hr, however I am willing to discuss that. I have over 15 years of childcare experience (in all areas), including with children with disabilities. Come January 2011 I will hopefully be going back to school full time to finish my degree to be an EA/support worker and would love some experience in this before I get my certificate. If you are looking for childcare, or are interested in this, or have any questions (I know its confusing!), please send me an email and we can discuss it.

Thanks!

Behavioural Instructor (Victoria BC)

CAREER OPPORTUNITY

An applied behaviour analysis treatment home has started in Victoria BC. This teaching home, the first of its kind in Victoria, has been designed by leading experts in the field of behaviour analysis from the United States and Canada. This client's program is supervised by board-certified behaviour analysts. This is an excellent opportunity for those interested in the field of behaviour analysis, and psychology to become involved in a challenging and rewarding position with a student with very unique programs and behaviour management systems. Excellent training and a high level of supervision will be provided.

Preference will be given to people with at least 6 months experience in the field of applied behaviour analysis. The student being served at this treatment home is a very active 17 year old boy, and as a part of his behaviour management program staff are required to take him running, to the pool and to other community-based recreation activities. Therefore, it is essential that staff are in good physical condition and can participate in these activities with him; male applicants are preferred, as this student also requires assistance with personal care skills. Standard checks and certificates will be required for the successful applicant.

We are currently recruiting for auxiliary staff positions, with potential to move into regular part time or full time positions. Auxiliary undergo all full training and are required to work a minimum of one scheduled shift per month and attend all team meetings and consultations with the client's behavioral consultants. Auxiliary staff will be given preference for part and full-time positions when they become available.

Wages range from $17.26 - $18.86 per hour; probationary wages are slightly less.

Interested applicants please respond by email with attached resume Attention: Program Supervisor, with the subject line "KSS Job Application" to karmasupportsocietyaba@gmail.com
