Bills Team Report (Yahoo! Sports)

Chan Gailey, an accomplished offensive coordinator in his long coaching career, said he would run the team's offense in his first season as head coach.

That announcement eases concerns of fans after Gailey hired Curtis Modkins on Jan. 27 and handed him the working title of offensive coordinator.

Modkins, an associate of Gailey's at Georgia Tech and then in the NFL with the Kansas City Chiefs, has never been a coordinator at any level of football. But Gailey was looking for an individual with a good resume of working with individual players that could help him implement his schemes.

"When you talk about a teacher, a communicator and a smart individual, Curtis fits all of those at the highest level," Gailey said.
